When writing, we capitalize:

- the first word in a sentence
- proper nouns, such as the names of people, places, products, and organizations
- the main words in the titles of books, stories, poems, and songs
- days of the week, months of the year and holidays
- the word "I"

Re-write each sentence, using capital letters as needed

6. i wonder why february sometimes has 29 days.

7. october is my favorite month because i get to dress up for halloween.

8. my new schedule shows i work at the gym mondays, tuesdays and saturdays, except this saturday, june 14, because the gym is closed for remodeling.

Grade 3 – Capitalization

Capitalizing Words in Titles: There are just a few basic rules to follow in capitalizing within a title:

A. Always capitalize the first and last word in a title.

B. Capitalize all nouns and all verbs, pronouns, adverbs, and adjectives.

C. "to" should not be capitalized unless at the beginning and end of the title.

D. All articles (a, an, the) should be lower case.

E. All prepositions should be lower case.

F. All coordinating conjunctions should be lower case.

Examples:

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

The Sign of the Beaver

Little House in the Big Woods

Rewrite each of these titles, demonstrating correct capitalization:
